

General Information – This application must be completed entirely and submitted with all of the required documents for it to be considered. This bursary program has been created to assist students in financial need and who have requested other sources of financial assistance. Omissions, false declarations and applications filled by persons other than the applicant, will result in refusal of bursary. Bursaries from Citadel Foundation are considered non-taxable revenue but must be declared on income taxes and bursary recipients will receive T4 and Relevé 1 slips for this purpose.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Bursaries are awarded to students in financial need for trade school, CEGEP and University. The highest level of studies that will be considered for a bursary is the Bachelor's Degree. We do not support students in a Master's or a Ph.D. program. Maximum bursaries awarded are $1,200 for a trade school student, $1,500 for a CEGEP student and $3,000 for a University student.
- All applications are treated in confidence.
- Students who are accepted may remain eligible throughout a course of studies as long as there remains a need. Students must re-apply to the Citadel Foundation and submit all the required documents.
- Application forms are available at the office of Citadel Foundation, via the Citadel website, from the Guidance Departments of Quebec High School, St. Patrick's High School, the Eastern Quebec Learning Centre, Dollard des Ormeaux School and St. Lawrence Campus of Champlain Regional College.
- All correspondence must be addressed to Citadel Foundation.
- Every applicant must submit the following :
  1. a fully completed application form (3 pages) including Social Insurance Number;
  2. a personal letter outlining financial needs and a career plan;
  3. a letter of reference from a responsible person who knows the applicant and supports his or her application (e.g.: school principal, teacher, clergyman, employer, etc.);
  4. a letter from the college or university, including proof of registration in full-time studies (admission forms will not be considered);
  5. a copy of government loans and bursary assessment (Calcul d'aide);
  6. a copy of your most recent grades.

Once we have received all of the required information and should your application be accepted, a cheque will be mailed to you.
